

Manage your business performance with Advanced Analytic Solutions

Make smart strategic decisions with fact-based insight by bridging the gap between raw data (including “Big Data”) and real knowledge with Advanced Analytic Solutions.

OVERVIEW

Axxiome's professional services team, which is comprised of analytic experts, business content experts, software solution architects, data warehouse architects, report / dashboard specialists and application development experts, consistently delivers high-value analytic solutions for Banking and Insurance companies globally.

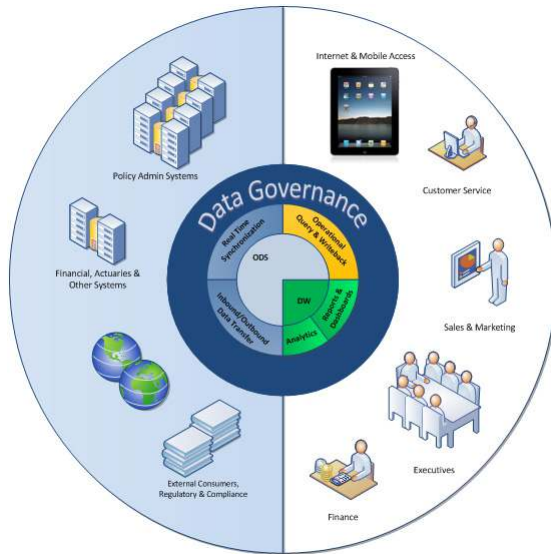

PLATFORM

Advanced Analytic Solutions are built with a Tier 1 analytic software platform and provide instant access to key business information to effectively manage performance and a holistic view of your company, customers, products and services.

A data governance model protects the data to ensure accurate, real-time insight via reports and personalized dashboards that are served up on your browser or mobile device.

ADVANCED ANALYTICS ECOSYSTEM

EXPERTISE

Axxiome provides senior level expertise combining both business and technological industry perspectives.

Axxiome brings deep and broad SAP expertise to all engagements to ensure that organizational goals and business objectives are aligned.

BUSINESS VALUE

- Our Advanced Analytic Solutions are customized to answer the key business questions that are unique to your individual organization.
- At the heart of this solution is the data, “Big Data” or “Small Data”, which could reside in a central repository consisting of an Operational Data Store and/or Data Warehouse (virtual or physical) utilizing newer technology like “in-memory”.
- Single source of the truth for operational reports, advanced analytics, data exploration and dashboards.
- Data from multiple sources is cleansed and consolidated into the central repository via real time synchronization or batch data transfer.
- Operational query and write-back to the ODS provide the most current information to customer service or other customer facing personnel and provide them with the ability to push updated customer data to the source systems using outboard data transfer.
